

A Darker Shade of Hatred

Lay Down Rotten

Awake in the horror-for the cult of terror
Flashing lights come to die-make way for the night
Sworn- to the dark side-vanished in the void
Grace-you will not find

A darker shade of hatred-prophets-for the lost
A darker shade of hatred-fear will eat you alive
A darker shade of hatred-prophets-for the weak
Gods last disciple

Obsessed with shame-march of the living dead
Free from the bondage of self

A darker shade of hatred prophets for the lost
A darker shade of hatred-fear will eat you alive
A darker shade of hatred-prophets-for the weak
Gods last disciple

The saints betray their own kind-the sons slay their fathers
The mothers set cradles on fire-the daughters mourn in torment

A darker shade of hatred-prophets- for the lost
A darker shade of hatred-fear will eat you alive
A darker shade of hatred-prophets-for the weak
Gods last disciple

East becomes west-the ugly face of devastation
Survival of the sickest-perverted in their minds
They worship-a lie-a procession of martyrs
On their way to hell

Awake in the horror-for the cult of terror
Flashing lights come to die-make way for the night
Sworn-to the dark side-vanished in the void
Grace-you will not find

A darker shade of hatred prophets for the lost
A darker shade of hatred-fear will eat you alive
A darker shade of hatred-prophets-for the weak
Gods last disciple
