

La Serpenta Canta

Lay Down Rotten

The path once known now forgotten

Vanished before our eyes
I seek-i will never find the astral door
The gateway to extinction
Last in the eternal void-of nothingness and sorrow
My friend-we shall resist-resist to exist
Forever and a day

La serpenta canta
Songs of loss and grief
La serpenta canta
Songs of rage and fear

Crawl in the cave-light failed to exist
We breed in holes and pools of blood
Corona diabola-corona eternal
I bend my knee and lay this burden down

Junk of minds descending into bleakness
We are nothing-for all there is the final vow
Broken the shell-i remain in destain...
My truth is set free-by those words i believe...
My friend-we shall resist-resist to exist
Forever and a day

La serpenta canta
Songs of loss and grief
La serpenta canta
Songs of rage and fear

La serpenta canta
...shriek of the diabolical siren
La serpenta canta
And so on
