

The Loss

Lay Down Rotten

Wasted youth
Childhood like a painful trauma
Ignorance in every act
Don't feel a don't ask
Lies heard in every word

A loss you cannot bear
Closed eyes tell the truth
The border is in sight
Days like endless nights
All lined up before my eyes

Believe in lies
Abuse of faith and hope
Till you cannot trust anymore
You paid your dues
Long ago-too far away

A loss you cannot bear
Closed eyes tell the truth
The border is in sigh
Days like endless nights
All lined up before my eyes

I still don't believe
I remember every word
Time heals nothing

Days like endless nights
All lined up before my eyes

Every fucking night-a lifetime lost
The future's sealed-by empty hands
Every fucking night-a lifetime lost
I remember every word
Some wounds will never heal
Scars won't tell the truth
