

Through Your Eyes

Lazarus A.D.

I can feel it building up deep down inside
No i wont let it fall apart no it cant fall apart
No i will not hide
I can feel the hatred in my veins
Pumping harder than it has before
Encountering evil succumbing to vengeance
As it pushes you to the floor

I can see through your eyes
Youre so evil you make the devil cry
And all the live that you compromise
Looking through the devils eyes

All my life ive been searching around
For the end of the rope that i never found
You and i and i know that i never gave
Half of what was needed to forever save
Now i lay face down in shit
Always the first to be the one to quit

I can see through your eyes
Youre so evil you make the devil cry
And all the live that you compromise
Looking through the devils eyes

I can see through your eyes
Youre so evil you make the devil cry
And all the live that you compromise
Looking through the devils eyes

I can see (and i can see )
Through your eyes (right through your eyes)
Youre so evil
