

Anything's Possible

Lea Michele

It's time to leave it all behind
It's time to pick up the pieces of my scattered mind
And after all my petals fall
I can finally find beauty beneath once and for all

I've spent way too long
Judging myself
Running from truth
Into someone else's
Arms but I'm done
The battle's begun
The battle's begun

There's fire in me
Deep down in my veins
There's clouds in my head
They're not gonna rain
There's fight in my heart
There's hope in my eyes
There's hope in my eyes

I push to the limits
I climb every wall
I keep on believing
Anything's possible
I run til I'm breathless
I stand ten feet tall
I keep on believing
Anything's possible
Whoa, oh, oh, oh
Anything's possible
Whoa, oh, oh, oh

It's time to crack the open door
It's time to leave every teardrop on the bathroom floor
If I'm scared, I'll go in scared
Yeah, I've got nothing to lose, it's only up from here

I've spent way too long
Judging myself
Running from truth
Into someone else's
Arms but I'm done
The battle's begun
The battle's begun

I push to the limits
I climb every wall
I keep on believing
Anything's possible
I run til I'm breathless
I stand ten feet tall
I keep on believing
Anything's possible
Whoa, oh, oh, oh
Anything's possible
Whoa, oh, oh, oh

Yeah, the night is all around me, 'round me
But in the dark, the stars, they found me, found me
I'm here
Whoa, oh, oh

I'm gonna push to the limits
I climb every wall
I keep on believing (believing)
Anything's possible
I run til I'm breathless
I stand ten feet tall
(I keep on believing)
I keep on believing
(Keep on believing)
Anything's possible
Whoa, oh, oh, oh
(Oh, oh, oh)
Whoa, oh, oh, oh
(Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
Anything's possible
Anything's possible
