

Thousand Needles

Lea Michele

Waves are breaking in a storm
Tornado sweep me off the floor
See only darker skies in sight
You wanna know what that's like

Like thousand needles in my heart
Whenever time sets us apart
And now my world is crashing down
Now that I can't have you around

Oh, why you wanna break away?
I'm bleeding
I can see you now in shades of grey
Our memory's fading
Oh, why you wanna break away?
I'm bleeding
I can see you now in shades of grey
Our memory fading

Running fast in hail and rain
Did someone tell me I'm insane?
Throw a reason out the door
Will make a difference no more

A thousand needles in my heart
Show me the painful from the start
You wasted love back in our day
The day before you walked away

Oh, why you wanna break away?
I'm bleeding
I can see you now in shades of grey
Our memory's fading
Oh, why you wanna break away?
I'm bleeding
I can see you now in shades of grey
Our memory fading

(a thousand needles in my heart)
(a thousand needles in my heart)
(a thousand needles in my heart)

Oh, why you wanna break away?
I'm bleeding
I can see you now in shades of grey
Our memory's fading
I can see you wanna break away
I'm bleeding
I can see you now in shades of grey
Our memory fading
