

Soon

LeAnn Rimes

Soon baby
I will cry my last tear
Soon yeah
I will be over you
Soon darlin'
All these tears won't be here
Soon yeah
You know that I will be over you soon

One night baby you won't be in my dreams
One night yeah
I'll finally make it through one night darlin'
I won't call out your name
I won't be in this place
I will be over you soon

Soon as the mountains turn into rivers
Soon as the sea turns into sand
Soon as the sun comes up at midnight
That's how soon

All the hurt will end
But till then I'll just pretend
It will be over, over
I keep telling myself I'll forget you
Someday soon, soon

Soon as the mountains turn into rivers
Soon as the sea turns into sand
Soon as the sun comes up at midnight
That's how soon
All the hurt will end but till then I'll just pretend
It will be over, over
I keep telling myself I'll forget you
Someday

Soon baby I will cry my last tears(i'll cry my last tears)
Soon, soon
You know that I will be over you(i'll be over you)
Soon darlin' I won't call out your name
I won't be in this place
I will be over you, soon
(I will be over you) I'll be over you soon baby
(I will be over you) I'll be over you soon soon
Oh I'll be over you soon
