And as fashionable as anything new sometimes I credit you With more intelligence than you've got and Sometimes I don't credit you with enough Today and we can make things happen And don't say can't and don't work too hard A new way and you can make things happen It's a feeling just don't work too hard You're the centre of the universe make the most of it And do your very worst Get up there with the rest the bashful cynic It's alright to be second best Don't waste your time it's the heart that's hard It's the head that's soft pretty slogans and the crimes Are meaningless tokens don't waste your time It's the heart that's hard it's the head that's fucking soft Industrious and arthritic I'd forgive you everything just don't sinq For love at first site and for peace of mind she's a man He's a woman they're all human Today and we can make things happen Don't say can't and don't work too hard A new way and you can make things happen It's a feeling just don't work too hard Don't waste your time it's the heart that's hard It's the head that's soft pretty slogans and the crimes Are meaningless tokens don't waste your time It's the heart that's hard it's the head that's fucking soft
