

Not A Day Goes By

Leatherface

No I didn't think you were wrong
And I can still sing your favorite song.
It's not as simple as forgetting presents that were bought,
And not a day goes by when I don't spare you a thought.
Not a day goes by, not a day goes, not a day goes by.
A time when everything was evergreen.
Evergreen and seemingly ideal.
Nights turning into days and we didn't even notice the change.
Not a day, not a day goes by.
