

Your Friends Are Full of Shit

Leathermouth

I can't pretend that I can stomach your face
You think I'm dead or what
Well I'll never forget, never relent, will never forget
My name is so long, I am a black horse
Walking for weapons, thinking of what you did
That's what I said baby, it's where it's at baby
I'll wear a smile when I stab you in the back baby
So watch your step kid, protect your neck kid
And if you're lucky they won't find you fucking dead
You're keeping this shit alive?
You're full of shit
Right, how can't you remember my name?
You never gave a shit
You are the maggots I never forget
Say your forevers and never forget
I tried for so long
I tried for so long
Trust me
Trust me
Trust me
I fucking tried
That's what I said baby, it's where it's at baby
I'll wear a smile when I stab you in the back baby
So watch your step kid, protect your neck kid
And if you're lucky they won't find you fucking-
Riot, you're such a fucking riot.
Riot, you're such a fucking riot.
Just walk away, bitch
You're fucked up now
Before I drop you
A life for a life, an eye for an eye
I can't pretend that you're just like me
A life for a life, an eye for an eye
We'll leave the world blind and keep pretending
Just walk away before I drop you
Just walk away before I drop you
Just walk away before I drop you
You're fucking dead, bitch
You're fucking dead, bitch
You're fucking dead, bitch
