

I think of you when I close my eyes
The starry image seems to hypnotize
The vision lies, I know your game
Without your love it won't be the same

I run
I hideaway
I run
Just to stay away

I run
I hideaway
I run
Just to stay away from you
Just to stay far from you

It's not too late to see the light
I could be wrong or I could be right
Until your well, it's run dry
Won't she'd a tear knowing when I cry

I run
I hideaway
I run
Just to stay away

I run
I hideaway
I run
Just to stay away from you
Just to stay far from you
Just to stay far from you

The vision lies, I know your game
Without your love it won't be the same

I run
I hideaway
I run
Just to stay away

I run
I hideaway
I run
Just to stay away from you
Just to stay far from you

I run
I hideaway
I run
And your hurt, it's not the same

I run
I hideaway
I run
You know you'll run away, hideaway, stay away
