

Princess Of Love

Leatherwolf

All the ships at sea once called her a distant illusion
They voyage from east to west searching from hell to the heavens again

Forgotten at sea, ablaze in the sun
Forever she'll be a princess of love
I feel the fire burning
The legend ship Princess of Love

In the firelight the false silhouette seems to drive you
Keeps sailing for has no end, destiny seems to have done you a gain

Burning at sea the flames in the sun
Forever she'll be a princess of love

I feel the fire burning
I see the spark that drives her on
I feel the raging fury
The phantom ship Princess of Love

Without the care of fear
She's just a raging tide
From nowhere she'll appear,
Flash before your eyes

I feel the fire burning
I see the spark that drives her on
I feel the raging fury
The phantom ship Princess of Love

I feel the fire burning
I see the spark that drives her on
I feel the raging fury
The phantom ship Princess of Love

I feel the fire burning
I see the spark that drives her on
I feel the fire burning
