

Irish Rain

Leaves' Eyes

Irish Rain
Let the rain kiss you
Wash away my pain
A minute to keep silence
Time to think and time to weep
Irish rain
It's the only thing I share with you tonight
Irish rain lullaby
Let the dark embrace you
Like a feather-bed
A moment to seek silence
Time to pray for inner peace
Let the moon enlighten you
Like a midnight star
Is there a heaven great enough
To spread my holy love for you
