

Northbound

Leaves' Eyes

Northbound

I have come by the sea-way home
I'm returning to where I belong
I travelled through countries of foreign belief
I've tasted the wine of the youth
But I am...

Northbound

Each day I am without you
Is like day-light without sun
Each night I rest without you
Is a king without his crown
In her eyes burns a light that will guide my way
Northbound I can only rely on my will to go
North again

There's a silence that comforts my ears
There's a purity streaming out in the wind
I will be home

Northbound

Fortnight since I saw her
Wonders never appear half-heartedly
Fortnight since I touched her
I am home
I am home
