

Norwegian Lovesong

Leaves' Eyes

Norwegian Lovesong
I grew up by the sea
I played under the sun
Come to me come into my dreams
This is my light of life
Between the bluebells
Sits a girl with blond braids
A blue-eyed angel
With strawberry cheeks
The spell has bound me
I was living a dream
Norwegian homeland
My heart belongs to you
I climbed mountains so high
I discovered the deep
Long to belong, long to be part of this dream
This is where my heart beats
