

Empty Heart

Lee Aaron

Wish you could find a way
To see a new tomorrow
Oh would you take my hand
Or pave your path for sorrow

It's your last chance
To turn your life around
Oh it's your last chance
To put your feet on the ground

(Too many empty hearts) Bringin' the world down
(So many bitter hearts) Cryin' out loud
(I couldn't stand to see) Another empty heart

I know you've had your share
Of pain despair and loneliness
Don't say that I don't care
I'll give you strength to pull through

It's your last chance
To turn your life around
Oh it's your last chance
To put your feet on the ground

(Too many empty hearts) Bringin' the world down
(So many bitter hearts) Cryin' out loud
(I couldn't stand to see) Another empty heart

(Too many empty hearts) Bringin' the world down
(So many bitter hearts) Cryin' out loud
(I couldn't stand to see) Another empty heart

(Too many empty hearts) Bringin' the world down
(So many bitter hearts) Cryin' out loud
(I couldn't stand to see) Another empty heart

(Too many empty hearts) Bringin' the world down
(So many bitter hearts) Cryin' out loud
(I couldn't stand to see) Another empty heart

(Too many empty hearts), Another empty heart
(So many bitter hearts)
(I couldn't stand to see)
Another empty heart
