

Heartbeat Of The World

Lee Aaron

There is a time that never sleeps
In desperation street
Show them from the heart
Crystal visions of my past
Children playin' at my feet
Dreams of broken glass

Now ya got me running scared
I'm reachin' out for you
But you're not there.

I can lie awake
And hear the sound of distant thunder
Feel the heartbeat of the world...
And now my love for you
You know it's gonna last forever

Desperadoes with no name
How they play the waiting game
Restless in the heat.
All they wanna do, is get some action
No one's gonna get away.
From the hand of pain that feeds.

Now I'm a prisoner for you.
Oh no one's gonna give it to me baby
Or please me like you do.

I can lie awake
And hear the sound of distant thunder
Feel the heartbeat of the world.
And now my love for you
You know it's gonna last forever

Just like the air you breathe
I'm the one, the one ya need
Just like the desert sun
Burning down on everyone
Just like the wildest sea
You'll never never turn the tide on me

I can lie awake
And hear the sound of distant thunder
Feel the heartbeat of the world
And now my love for you
Ya know it's gonna last forever

Feel the heartbeat of the world
Feel the heartbeat
Feel the heartbeat
Feel the heartbeat of the world
Feel the heartbeat
Feel the heartbeat of the world
Feel the heartbeat, of the world
Oh, yeah, feel the heartbeat
Feel the heartbeat of the world
Feel the heartbeat, of the world

Feel the heartbeat of the world.
Feel the heartbeat, of the world
Feel the heartbeat
Feel the heartbeat of the world
