

Under The Stars

Lee Aaron

Ooh... ooh
Walkin' on, down one more road
With his woman by his side
He thinks of all, the things he should've done
As 'e looks to the sky

Well he really wants ta break down, every wall...
That held 'im back and made him fall behind
He wants to live out, all of 'is dreams...
Ya know it really never dies
When you're under the stars...
Yeahy

While rollin' on, down a lonely road
He reflects upon the past
A simple guy, who means every word
Simple guys don' always finish last

Well he wants to set out, across the land
Conquer every battle that he's lost
Oh he wants to know, an' he wants to grow
Painful cries no tears ignore the cause

When you're, (under the stars under the stars)
(Under the stars under the star)

(Under the stars under the stars)
(Under the stars under the stars)
(Under the stars under the stars)
(Under the stars under the stars)
Stars, stars, stars yeah.

Thank you, thank you
