

Am I the Only Thing That You've Done Wrong

Lee Ann Womack

You're the life of the party
You stand out in a crowd
When I think of all the things you've done
It always makes me proud
But tonight I'm feeling empty
It seems I'm always here alone
Am I the only thing you've done wrong?
Am I the only one that you've forgotten on the way?
To gain the world and lose our love is too high a price to pay
In your long line of successes, tell me where do I belong?
Am I the only thing you've done wrong?
You got another big promotion
You're the best man on the crew
When you set your mind on something
There's nothing you can't do
This house you built is perfect
We're the envy of the town
But Lord, it's lonely here when you're not around
Am I the only one that you've forgotten on the way?
To gain the world and lose our love is too high a price to pay
In your long line of successes, tell me where do I belong?
Am I the only thing you've done wrong?
Oh, am I the only thing you've done wrong?
