Not Forgotten You

Lee Ann Womack

I came home a little early last night shed not a tear when I tu rned out the light No I don't hurt like I used to Didn't wait for the knock on my door drawer in the room ain't e mpty anymore So many got it tougher than I do But I have not forgotten I have not forgotten I have not forgotten you Time flies and you just know time to think about lettin' go Times I even forget to be blue Big feet to shufle them sands leave no trail and slip right thr ough your hands Done every little thing I know to do But I have not forgotten I have not forgotten I have not forgotten you And I said hail the western bound with it's black tail flying Lay on the rails and leave me to dream of where your love was m ine Time flies and you just know time to think about lettin' go Times I even forget to be blue But I have not forgotten I have not forgotten I have not forgotten you No I have not forgotten I have not forgotten I have not forgotten you Hey I have not forgotten I have not forgotten I have not forgotten you
