

Surrender

Lee Ann Womack

Baby, it's like dreaming when you're wide-awake
Surrender
Baby, would you, would you like to go to paradise with me
Let me kiss you, let me love you
Close your eyes and you'll see
The sun is shining, the tide is rising
The water's pulling at our feet
Hold your breath, now take my hand and come with me
Let me just take you there, I could just take you there
Won't you let me take you there right now
Leave the world waiting there, leave it without a care
Baby, if you dare, I'll show you how

Waves are washing over me
Set your spirit free, surrender
Baby, emotions run deep
Let's go underneath, surrender
No defenses, just your senses
And the pounding of a heart
It's like dreaming when you're wideawake
Every time I take you in my arms
Let me just take you there
I could just take you there
Won't you let me take you there right now?
Feel the heat on your skin
Sweeter than it's ever been
Why don't we just give in to it now?

Let me just take you there
I could just take you there
Won't you let me take you there right now?
Feel the heat on your skin
Sweeter than it's ever been
Why don't we just give in to it now?

Baby, would you, would you like to go to paradise with me
Hold your breath now
Take my hand and
Come with me
