Beautiful Like You

Lee DeWyze

Everybody wants to
Look into the mirror
And feel a little better now

And everybody wants to Know there's someone out there Waiting for you to come around

And I wish that
You could feel it
But you don't choose
To believe it
Cause I know that
You can't see it that way
That way

If you could only just stop stop running
If you could only take a second to breathe it in
Everything that you know would be beautiful
Like you
You know they're never gonna stop stop your love
Let's pretend that the world is waking up
Everything that we see is beautiful
Like you
Like you

Everybody wants to Tell someone their secrets Why don't you tell me now

Well, maybe I can fix this
Then I don't want
You to miss this
And the sun is
Raining down
Yeah

If you could only just stop stop running
If you could only take a second to breathe it in
Everything that you know would be beautiful
Like you
You know they're never gonna stop stop your love
Let's pretend that the world is waking up
Everything that we see is beautiful
Like you

Sometimes is hard to be Yourself in this crazy world Sometimes is hard to breathe Yeah

Everybody wants to Know there's someone out there Waiting for you to come around Come around

If you could only just stop stop stop running

If you could only take a second to breathe it in Everything that you know would be beautiful Like you
You know they're never gonna stop stop stop your love Let's pretend that the world is waking up Everything that we see can be beautiful Like you

Can be beautiful Like you Can be beautiful Like you

Oh, Beautiful
