

Flower Child

Lee DeWyze

Everybody hates you today
A superstar by tomorrow
You've got to put a smile on
Just to hide your sorrow
But you have walked
Where others fear to tread
And there's a light at the end
You've got to reach out your hand

You've got to go find some love
There's a whole of love to be got
You're my flower child and I'm your forget me not

Now all your friends disappear
And we're so alone
And the only thing you're dreaming of
Are memories of home
So love me today
Forget about tomorrow
Cause you don't have to wear a smile now
I'll take away you're sorrow

You've got to go find some love
There's a whole lot of love to be got
You're my flower child and I'm you're forget me not

Everybody hates you today
A superstar by tomorrow
And you don't have to wear a smile now
Ill take away you're sorrow

You've got to go find some love
There's a whole lot of love to be got
You're my flower child and I'm you're forget me not
