Your hair looks wonderful
Your clothes well kept
I know you're wide awake
But I haven't slept yet
It's almost ten o'clock
And before you leave
Make sure the door is locked

Unless you stay for a while I know it's getting near Why don't you stay for a while It's hard to say I love you dear I love you dear

And then you leave with smiles
And you return with tears
Now you have made come true
All of my biggest fears
It's almost twelve o'clock
And before you leave
Make sure the door is locked

Unless you stay for a while I know it's getting near Why don't you stay for a while It's hard to say I love you dear

Your hair looks wonderful Your clothes are so well kept I know you're wide awake But I haven't slept yet I haven't slept

Why don't you stay for a while I know it's getting near Why don't you stay for a while It's hard to say I love you dear I love you dear

My hair looks wonderful My clothes are so well kept I know I'm wide awake And you haven't slept yet You haven't slept yet

Why don't you stay for a while I know it's getting near Why don't you stay for a while It's hard to say I love you dear I love you dear
