

Hey Cowboy

Lee Hazlewood

Hey cowboy, where did you get the clothes you wear Hey cowboy, where did you get the funny hair What are you doing in the land of the midnight sun 'cause you better run
you're just a toy cowboy
I may not look right but I sure do feel fine you hang around me and I'll undo your mind

Hey cowboy, where did you get the funny walk Hey cowboy, where did you get the crazy talk What're you doing in the land of the midnight sun 'cause you better run
you're just a toy cowboy
If I'm a toy then let me do what I do you wind me up and watch what I'd do to you

Hey cowboy (what do you want?), where did you get that horse Hey cowboy, from the men of course
what're you doing in the land of the midnight sun 'cause you better run
you're just a toy cowboy
I'm maybe small but I know I'm right for you No big cowboy can do the little things I do (you get that straight little Swedish girl?
Aha, alright)
