

The Odyssey

Lee Kernaghan

I get the feeling
When I cross the border ranges
The odyssey begins
To the floodlands in the distance
Take the path of least resistance
That draws me further in

And I feel so free
This country's got a hold on me
It wraps it's soul around me
Will not let me go

The planet spins a stoney desert in the twilight
The universe unfolds
And the desert shadows flicker
All around this dusty traveler
I close in by the fire

And I feel so free
This country's got a hold on me
It wraps it's soul around me
Will not let me

And I feel so free
This country's got a hold on me
It wraps it's soul around me
Will not let me
Will not let me go
