

Gone

Lee Roker

When I finally made it back there were locks on all the windows and the doors Everything had changed, like I'd never seen this place before Well your lookin at me different, now I know that the end is finally here
Baby there ain't nothing left,
I won't shed a tear because there gone

There Gone
Nothing lasts forever
There Gone

I took myself to Reno where
I looked around and found a place to play
In a broken down casino, long ago had seen a better day
Well I played my luck and I sang my song
I couldn't stay there very long
Baby there ain't nothing left
I won't shed a tear because there gone

There gone
Nothin lasts forever
There gone
I wont shed a tear because there gone
Nothin lasts forever
There gone

There gone
Nothin lasts forever
There gone

So I hitched a ride to Memphis and I got off by the Mississippi Bridge
An I made my way to beal st. where I heard the ghosts had lived
Well I raced a train and that's alright
Kentucky moon I'll hold you tight
Baby there ain't nothing left
I won't shed a tear because there gone

There gone
Nothing lasts forever
There gone
I wont shed a tear because there gone
Nothin lasts forever
There gone
I wont shed a tear because there gone
Nothin lasts forever
I wont shed a tear because there gone
Nothin lasts forever
There gone
