

Rockin' Harder

Lee Rocker

I see you baby as you walk in down the street
I try to get you but you got the flying feet
You got the look, you got the taste, you got the style
I'm gonna get you if it takes a little while
I'm rockin' harder, than I ever did before

I'm drinking whiskey and I'm drinking so much beer
I got to tell you that the day is getting near
Baby, baby there ain't nothing left to say
Baby. baby I won't let you get away
I'm rockin' harder, than I ever did before

I wanna warn you that I'm feeling bulletproof
Baby, baby don't you know that it's the truth
Leap tall buildings and I'm faster than a train
Baby, baby I ain't feeling any pain

Got my hair piled high, got my leather jacket on
I gott a rocking band they dance until it's dawn
Ain't nothing better than a rockabilly song
Baby, baby don't you know I'm feeling strong
I'm rockin' harder, than I ever did before

I wanna warn you that I'm feeling bulletproof
Baby, baby don't you know that it's the truth
Leap tall buildings and I'm faster than a train
Baby, baby I ain't feeling any pain

I'm drinking whiskey and I'm drinking so much beer
I got to tell you that the day is getting near
Baby. baby I'll get you get away
I'm rockin' harder, never ever did before
I'm rockin' harder, never ever did before
