Oughta Be A Law

Lee Roy Parnell

Oughta be a law oughta be a law y'all Oughta be a law against anybody walking that way

Oughta be a law oughta be a law y'all

The way she moves is a moving violation

It just ain't right what she's doing to me

She walked by and stole my attention

You know it makes me want to lock the girl up

And throw away the key

There oughta be a law oughta be a law y'all

Driving home she turned me around
I had to make the block come back and check it out again
Blood red dress and dangerous curves
When she flashes her smile at me it threw me into a spin

Oughta be a law oughta be a law y'all

She's stopping traffic up and down the street Making a wreck of every man she meets Somebody ought to go call the police She's disturbing the peace

Oughta be a law oughta be a law y'all

She ought to get a citation for all the excitation Go before the judge and jury for causing such a fury There ought to be some kind of law y'all There ought to be some kind of law y'all
