

In The Morning

Lee Ryan

Sometimes I watch you while your sleeping
So amazed at how pretty you are
I wonder what it is your dreaming sometimes
Where your mind goes
And just how far

Is it me, that makes you smile when dreaming
Or could it be, the other man your seeing

I guess ill ask you in the morning
Right before I pack my things
And walk right out the door
I guess ill ask you in the morning
Ill pretend were still in love tonight but we won't be anymore

In the morning (2x)

Wish I could see inside your mind
So could find out where we went wrong
Because your happiness is my sunshine
I should have known the rain was sure to come
