

Beginning And The End

Leeland

Out of darkness into light
I know that I will be alright
Here inside Your hands

I never wanna stray too far
Just wanna be where You are Here inside Your plan

And You're the center of
The beginning & the end

And I place my life inside Your hands
You hold for me a perfect plan
And You are the beginning & the end

Everything that I've done wrong
Put You there on that cross
Where nails drove in Your hands

A crown of thorns deep in Your brow
I never knew it until now
It was all Your plan

God, You've always been
The beginning & the end

And I place my life inside Your hands
You hold for me a perfect plan
And You are the beginning & the end

And I place my life inside Your hands
You hold for me a perfect plan
And You are the beginning & the end

Singin?

You have plans for me
You've given me a hope and a future
You have plans for me
(I place my life inside your hands)
You've given me a hope and a future
(You hold for me a perfect plan)
And You are the beginning & the end
