

Carry Me On Your Back

Leeland

Even heroes fall down
And mountains won't last forever
But Your promise never fails

When the ocean is raging
I find stillness in Your presence
And I lift my voice to say
'Jesus take me away!

Carry me on your back
Through the storm, Lord!
Carry me on your back
Through the storm, Lord!'

When the furnace is burning
I know rescue is coming
Your promise never fails

In the darkness Your light shines
Breaking over the horizon
And I lift my eyes to see
Heaven's fighting for me

'Carry me on your back
Through the storm, Lord!
Carry me on your back
Through the storm, Lord!'

Waking up in the arms of love
I'll be singing, singing a new song
Waking up in the arms of love
I'll be singing, singing a new song

Carry me on your back
Through the storm, Lord!
Carry me on your back
Through the storm, Lord!
