

Dead Red Roses

Left Alone

So what you gonna
Do now honey?
When I'm dead and gone
And the only thing you have to remember me by
Is this fucking song

I went driving down
New Hampshire street now sugar
Looking for a home
But that's where I found
Myself in the end
Desperate and alone

Dead red roses on my bed
For the love that went away
Dead red roses on my bed

Dead red roses on my bed
For the love that went away
Dead red roses on my bed

And all the times
When I was standing by myself
And I'll stand there again
Well over & over & over again
I stand without any friends
And every single time
I needed someone there there was
No one there for me
Well it took time to realize
But now there's no surprise
No I finally see

Dead red roses on my bed
For the love that went away
Dead red roses on my bed

Dead red roses on my bed
For the love that went away
Dead red roses on my bed
