

They're always telling me it's dead, it's done
I better grow up and move on
But I do what I want
I do things my way

They're always saying I've lost my mind
But I'm just waiting for my time
But I do what I want
I do things my way

They're always telling me it's dead, it's done
I better grow up and move on
But I do what I want
I do things my way

They're always saying I've lost my mind
But I'm just waiting for my time
But I do what I want
I do things my way
