

Rock The 40oz

Leftöver Crack

shoot the kids at school / all in a bloody pool i'll show the teachers too / 'cuz they can't tell me what to do

* getting C's and D's / saying thanks and please ya broke the golden rule / yer staying after school land is real estate / to the ones I hate the cops say you just refrain / from squattin', drinkin', and h oppin' trains

drink but don't drink this / it aint beer it's piss rock the fourty ounce / it's the change that counts when we get there on the train we'll get some booze and start again i'm living in the past / i'm goin' nowhere fast jesus has a place for me / a life of sin and infamy droppin out of school / teacher is a fool so ya run away / livin day to day doin whatcha gotta do and what makes you happy too

* fallin prey to drugs / sportin' body bugs

just don't get locked up in jail cuz no ones gonna have the bail taking time to break the laws & then i'll lick my dirty paws dodging all the lies i'm fed i'll live my life and then i'm dead
