

Faithful

Legend

Time cannot take, the faith I will keep
By my side, you've always been my saving grace. There's a day w e all
Will face, It's a place we fear, we sit and wait for voices. No matter
What you fake, we can't escape the pain it brings. I'll never l et this Die.
I am afraid to be alone. What can I change, what will it take.
You are
The light in me.
Back and forth and back and forth. I wouldn't change this. No I Wouldn't change this, for the world.

This time I am the martyr

Thoughts of what's gone. The very thought makes me sick inside
You saved me from myself you are the driving force that makes m e who I Want to be
I am afraid to be alone. What can I change, what will it take,
you are
The light in me.
Back and forth and back and forth I wouldn't change this. No I Wouldn't change this,
For the world.
