Time cannot take, the faith I will keep

By my side, you've always been my saving grace. There's a day we all

Will face, It's a place we fear, we sit and wait for voices. No matter

What you fake, we can't escape the pain it brings. I'll never l et this

Die.

I am afraid to be alone. What can I change, what will it take. You are

The light in me.

Back and forth and back and forth. I wouldn't change this. No I Wouldn't change this, for the world.

This time I am the martyr

Thoughts of what's gone. The very thought makes me sick inside You saved me from myself you are the driving force that makes me who  $\rm I$

Want to be

I am afraid to be alone. What can I change, what will it take, you are

The light in me.

Back and forth and back and forth I wouldn't change this. No I Wouldn't change this,

For the world.
