

The Root

Legenda Aurea

Treat me like a doll
Defenceless and weak
I fullfill your wildest dreams

Forever I shall be the victim
Of your sickness
Torment and pain are guiding me
To desperateness
Showing no mercy at all
You destroy me
Everything you took of me
For eternity
Endlessly
You strangle me

I am on my knees now
Why father,
How can you treat me like this?
You make me feel like
I'm absolutely worthless
Endlessly
You strangle me

I'm locked up in this unholy room
I'm an object of desire, not your child
