

Total Eclipse

Legenda Aurea

Blackened rain
Inevitable moments
And these thoughts in my head
Will never fade

This isolation and this senselessness
What did I become, who am I?
A shell without core
Nothing's left anymore

I must break these walls
And leave it all behind
I must unleash my feelings
To free my mind
But how should I fight
Without hope and fortitude
I must break these walls
And leave it all behind

There's nothing of any importance
I've lost my credence, I'm hopeless
There's nothing of any importance
I'm fettered in chains

I must break these walls
And leave it all behind
I must unleash my feelings
To free my mind
But how should I fight
Without hope and fortitude
And leave it all behind
