

Necrosophic Blessing

Legion of the Damned

Night side perspective
Hidden during the day
When darkness has set in
The time has come to prey

Prowling in the night
Culling is the game
The cards have been dealt
In this lethal game

Eternal cosmic cycle
Of endless death and birth
Neverending stream of corpses
Consumed by this earth

The wheel of time turns
Existence does not matter
Only death can show
Necrosophic rapture

Equal in death
Culling is the game

Death is just transition
Submit to your fate

Covered in the ashes
Of the cremated dead
Drinking from the skull
Collected from the grave

Meditate upon
The act of violent death
My nocturnal calling
Is the sadean lust for life

Beggar or prince
Kill without distinction
Murder sanctified
Deadly absolution

Do not pledge for mercy
Your cries are in vain
Senseless life ends
Deliverance from pain
