Leighton Meester

A haunted soul
And yes, I know
That it's all immaterial
And that's not all,
See, I want more
Than something I know's not real

Is this real life?
Why can't I decide?
I think I'll stay a while

Cause,
I'm only dreaming
And the hallway's cold
And the lights are on
You're just a call away
And nothing's wrong
And nothing's gone away

It never ends
When my mind sends
Me into oblivion
A secret place
That is laced
With a dose of what could have been

Is this real life?
Why can't I decide?
I think I'll stay a while

Cause,
I'm only dreaming
And the hallway's cold
And the lights are on
You're just a call away
And nothing's wrong
And nothing's gone away

Leave me be
I'm at peace
Asleep
Slipping in between the sheets
In my favorite dreams

Is this real life?
Why can't I decide?
I think I'll stay a while

I'm only dreaming
And the hallway's cold
And the lights are on
You're just a call away
And nothing's wrong
And nothing's gone away

I'm only dreaming
And the hallway's cold

And the lights are on
You're just a call away
And nothing's wrong
And nothing's gone away
