Good for one thing

Leighton Meester

Talk over the radio, that way everyone can hear. Louder than the stereo, don't worry your head my dear. I think it's hilarious, the way you talk about yourself But don't tell that story again.

You're good for one thing, I can't help but calling you out But you're so lovely, I can't behave myself

Look into the mirror, I know you're good at that Don't be so insecure, as long as you shut your mouth Take yourself so serious, like you're talking for your health But don't tell that story again.

You're good for one thing, I can't help but calling you out But you're so lovely, I can't behave myself

Be slow. Anybody home?

You're good for one thing, I can't help but calling you out But you're so lovely, I can not help myself You're good for one thing, I can't help but calling you out But you're so lovely, I can't behave myself
