

The Reason

Lemar

The reason
Are you the reason
You are the reason
The reason
You are the reason
You are, are

Spirals
And roundabouts
Empty promises
That's what life's about
Set free when we're sleeping
Recaptured every down
Unaware what the fight is
Yet we all carry on

This cannot by existence
There's got to be more to life
You sent me divine intervention
Gave me the key to life

Needed something to believe in
Love come along
Never heard it calling
Caught up in a world living life
So selfish
You came along
Now it all makes sense

You are the reason
Life is the lesson
The student is the teacher
The begger is the rich man
And we're all just a little weaker
Than we make ourselves
Out to be
See, people need people
So why do I stand alone?
I can't make it my own

Needed something to believe in
Love come along
Never heard it calling
Caught up in a world living life
So selfish
You came along
And when I had nothing
And when I had nothing
You gave me something
You gave me something

You are the reason
You are the reason
