

More Than A Band

Lemonade Mouth

I can't pretend to know how you feel
But know that I'm here, know that I'm real
Say what you want or don't talk at all
Not gonna let you fall

Reach for my hand 'cause it's held out for you
My shoulders are small but you can cry on them too
Everything changes but one thing is true, understand
We'll always be more than a band
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

You used to brave the world all on your own
Now we won't let you go, go in alone
Be who you wanna be, always stand tall
Not gonna let you fall

Reach for my hand 'cause it's held out for you
My shoulders are strong but you can cry on them too
Everything changes but one thing is true, understand
We'll always be more than a band

I never knew you could take me so far
I've always wanted the hope that you are The ones I need
(Always be more than, yeah than)

Reach for my hand 'cause it's held out for you
My shoulders are strong but you can cry on them too
Everything changes but one thing is true, understand
We'll always be more than a band

Reach for my hand 'cause it's held out for you
My shoulders are strong but you can cry on them too
Everything changes but one thing is true, understand
We'll always be more than a band
