

In A World Of Ghosts

Lemuria

I haven't seen you cry yet
I'm betting a million i won't see it happen
I wonder how you hide it
We're miles away from each other
The telephone's not enough to keep this together
We're lonely, and frustrated
We need better communication
But when i'm with you everything's perfect
Goddamnit with you things are perfect
I haven't seen you cry yet
