Something I Said

Lena Katina

I guess I didn't see this coming
My perfect world just came unglued
You walked out the door left me with nothing but thoughts
Is there something I can do?

So I try and I try
And I shout and I cry
But it's chaos around and it's chaos inside
Am I crossing the line?
Am I wasting my time?

Is it something I've said?
Was it something I've done?
I'm going out of my head again and again
And I can't understand

Is it something I've said?
(I had to ask)
Was it something I've done?
(That turned love black)
To forgive and forget whatever was said
To bring us back again

I'm learning how to live without you
I know I have to let you go
But so many things remind me of you
I can't help myself I need to know

So I try and I try
And I shout and I cry
But it's chaos around and it's chaos inside
Am I crossing the line?
Am I wasting my time?

Is it something I've said?
Was it something I've done?
I'm going out of my head again and again
And I can't understand

Is it something I've said?
(I had to ask)
Was it something I've done?
(That turned love black)
To forgive and forget whatever was said
To bring us back again
