

Walking In The Sun

Lena Katina

Heavy hearted, empty handed
Feels like no way out
Tangled thoughts have left me stranded
Spinning me around

Yesterday is killing me,
Taking me down
Holding my heart to the floor
Tearing me twisting me over, but now

I'm stepping out that door

Today I'll be walking in the sun
Running from everyone
Breaking away from what was done
Running from everyone

Yesterday is over
Tomorrow rain might come
But today I'll be walking
Walking in the sun

I'm refusing to surrender
I won't stop to fight
All my doubts will be suspended
Fading in the light

Every step, every breath,
Clearing my head
Shatter my fate on the floor
Nothing is holding me no more regret

I'm stepping out that door

Today I'll be walking in the sun
Running from everyone
Breaking away from what was done
Running from everyone

Yesterday is over
Tomorrow rain might come
But today I'll be walking
Walking in the sun

Yesterday is over, I'll be walking
Walking in the sun
Nothing's gonna stop me, I'll be gone
Walking in the sun

Yesterday is over, I'll be walking
Walking in the sun
Nothing's gonna stop me, I'll be gone
Walking in the sun

Standing in the light
Feeling so alive
I'm standing in the light

I'm feeling, feeling, I'm feeling

Today I'll be walking in the sun
Breaking away from what was done

Yesterday is over

Yesterday is over, I'll be walking
Walking in the sun

Yesterday is over, I'll be walking
Walking in the sun
