

Bliss Bliss

Lena

I was going hail wire, feeling out of tune,
Sipping drinks slowly, early afternoon
Always calling me a drifter, but you're digging what I do,
I dance so lonely, a dark untrue.

Bliss, bliss, bliss, when you gonna see,
Your every little heartbeat gets to me
Wherever in the world, my carrousel is spinning.
Bliss, bliss, bliss, when you gonna see,
Your every little heartbeat gets to me
Wherever in the world, my carrousel is spinning.

I bought myself a halo, I use it when I chose
To get the people smiling, keep them from the truth.
You see, the fire gets me sewing, I use it when I'm lost,
To get the words flowing, but add white cause.

Bliss, bliss, bliss, when you gonna see,
Your every little heartbeat gets to me
Wherever in the world, my carrousel is spinning.
Bliss, bliss, bliss, when you gonna see,
Your every little heartbeat gets to me
Wherever in the world, my carrousel is spinning.

Rough day, rough day, rough day,
I am tired, I am shaking.
Rough day, such a rough day,
But in the fire, in the dirt,
Where I see all these words.

Bliss, bliss, bliss, when you gonna see
Every heartbeat, baby, gets to me.
I see you.
Bliss, bliss, bliss, when you gonna see,
Your every little heartbeat gets to me
Wherever in the world, my carrousel is spinning.
Bliss, bliss, bliss, when you gonna see,
Your every little heartbeat gets to me
Wherever in the world, my carrousel is spinning.
Bliss, bliss, bliss, when you gonna see,
Your every little heartbeat gets to me
Wherever in the world, my carrousel is spinning.

It doesn't really matter if we get along,
In this gold fire, doing it for fun,
You think we know it all,
But we're only just beginning.
