

I'll Follow

Lene Marlin

As time goes by its usual way
And reality's unfolding around me
I suddenly realize
I see it so clear just where I should be
That place is not here I'm sorry to say
I'm sure that you've felt it too
That feeling of sadness when happiness fled
Deep down you know what to do

I never knew 'bout tomorrow
I've deared see
I'll follow
Wherever it takes me
I know I'll follow my heart
Now I know

You may think I'm scared but I'm not
I'm ready to do what's right for me
I knew it all along
Just took some time but now I finally see
You can ignore what's right there in front of you
But at some point you open your eyes
It sure can be scary
There's no turning back
Only the truth
No more lies

I never knew 'bout tomorrow
I've deared see
I'll follow
Wherever it takes me
I know I'll follow my heart
Now I know
I never knew 'bout tomorrow
I've deared see
I'll follow
Wherever it takes me
I know I'll follow my heart
Now I know
