

Strawberry skies

Lenka Filipová

Never had a reason to believe in or a chance I couldn't blow never had a car I couldn't sleep in I'm just another rolling stone

I got a little pocket full of feathers and I'm still working on my wings and when I find that open window man this bird is gonna sing

Under strawberry skies
with the sun setting low
under strawberry skies
I know someday yeah
I'm gonna fly back home

I seen a lotta people lookin' lonely ya gotta learn to have some fun take a look around and smile slowly laugh and sing a little song
